Dromoland Castle, Newmarket-on-Fergus, Co. Clare, If your budget can bear it, it's worth a splurge to live like a king or queen at this sumptuous and authentic castle, originally built by the O'Briens, the high kings of Ireland, in the 17th century. Located less than 10 miles from Shannon Airport, it has been enhanced and enlarged over the years and now operates at 5-star level, with 100 posh guest rooms of varying size, vintage, and upstairs-or-downstairs location, all housed in turrets, towers, courtyards, or new wings. To add to the splendor, the castle sits beside the River Rine on a 400 acre walled estate of parklands and gardens, and 18-hole golf course. Guests can also avail of indoor swimming pool, tennis, fishing, horse riding, and a health and beauty clinic.
